

Chapter 5, Drill: prepositions with ablative and accusative.

- 1) Each Latin sentence contains a prepositional phrase. Give the correct form of the noun in parentheses (ablative or accusative), depending on the preposition in front of the noun in parentheses.
- 2) Translate

Example:

Quintus in (ager) laborat.

Answer: agro: Quintus works in the field.

1. Quintus in (agri) currit.
2. puella in (via) sedet.
3. pueri per (hortus) procedunt.
4. Scintilla cum (filia) advenit.

5. puellae per (ager) currunt.

6. laeti pueri ex (hortus) festinant.

7. pueri in (casa) sunt.

8. Flaccus in pueros (ager) ducit.

9. puella in (ager) manet.

10. Scintilla ex (casa) currit.

11. Scintilla filiam in (casa) mittit.